STATEMENT OF FACTS

EDDIE L. MORRIS

On or about October 8, 2004, EDDIE L. MORRIS was attempting to pass through the security check point at the Dayton International Airport prior to boarding a commercial flight departing Dayton, Ohio. This was an airport area that served an air carrier. A security screener operating the x-ray machine observed a handgun in EDDIE L. MORRIS' carry-on bag. The screener notified airport law enforcement at which time the carry-on bag was seized. EDDIE L. MORRIS acknowledged ownership of the carry-on bag. EDDIE L. MORRIS admitted to airport law enforcement personnel that he had a gun in the carry-on bag and it was loaded. The handgun was described as a .22 caliber magnum 5-shot revolver, serial number E048209 and was fully loaded. EDDIE L. MORRIS knew or should have known that the gun was in his carry-on bag when he attempted to board the flight departing Dayton, Ohio.

For the information of the Court, the screening procedures that detected the gun were done pursuant to security regulations required by federal law.
